

Sample: Evidence of Douglas' Behaviour

Case Study: The Murder of Peter Brown

Criteria	Evidence that Douglas Deserved Knighthood	Evidence that Douglas Did Not Deserve Knighthood
Loyalty to the Crown	-Intends to bring the Aboriginal criminals to justice and not punish their tribes. (Doc #2).
Effective leadership	-Douglas was able to negotiate support from the navy to help bring the criminals to justice (Doc #2). -Apprehended the accused Cowichan murderer without a fight with the Cowichan people (Doc #3).	-by taking a naval force to the Cowichan he risked a war with the powerful Cowichan people (Doc #3).
Fair and even-handed manner	-Douglas investigates the case closely considering all possible reasons for the murder (Doc #1). -Met with the Aboriginals to negotiate before using military force (Doc #3).	-Considers aboriginals to be savage and uncivilized (Doc #1). -Concludes that the Aboriginals had no justifiable reasons for killing Brown although he did not speak to them before making this conclusion (Doc #1).