

Name: _____

Judging Knowledgeable Sources

Scenario: After winning the Stanley Cup, fans of the Pittsburgh Penguins celebrated in the streets. The celebration soon turned into a riot when some fans overturned cars and smashed shop windows. The riot was stopped by the Pittsburgh Police Department who arrested hundreds of people. The City of Pittsburgh launched an investigation to interview people to find out exactly why this peaceful celebration turned into a riot.

Determine whether or not each of the following individual are knowledgeable sources of information about the riot. After assessing all the sources decide which two be the two most knowledgeable sources.

Sources	How Knowledgeable?	Explanation
A hockey player from the winning Pittsburgh Penguins	<input type="checkbox"/> Very knowledgeable <input type="checkbox"/> Somewhat knowledgeable <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Not knowledgeable	The hockey player was not likely to be part of the post-game celebration on the streets.
A news reporter who arrived on the scene after the celebration turned violent.	<input type="checkbox"/> Very knowledgeable <input type="checkbox"/> Somewhat knowledgeable <input type="checkbox"/> Not knowledgeable
A police helicopter pilot who watched the entire celebration from the sky.	<input type="checkbox"/> Very knowledgeable <input type="checkbox"/> Somewhat knowledgeable <input type="checkbox"/> Not knowledgeable
A husband and wife who attended the game and were celebrating in the streets when the riot broke out.	<input type="checkbox"/> Very knowledgeable <input type="checkbox"/> Somewhat knowledgeable <input type="checkbox"/> Not knowledgeable
A person who watched the celebration turn into a riot from her apartment balcony.	<input type="checkbox"/> Very knowledgeable <input type="checkbox"/> Somewhat knowledgeable <input type="checkbox"/> Not knowledgeable
A police officer who was in the streets from the end of the game until the riot broke out.	<input type="checkbox"/> Very knowledgeable <input type="checkbox"/> Somewhat knowledgeable <input type="checkbox"/> Not knowledgeable	